

THE PROCESS OF HISTORICAL INVESTIGATION

Part A: Research

1. Create an Investigative Question
2. Seek Information from Primary and Secondary Sources

Part B: Analyze Evidence

STEPS 1-4: ANALYZING AN INDIVIDUAL SOURCE:

1. LITERAL SOURCE QUESTIONING
What are the literal aspects of the document?
2. LOOKING FOR POINT OF VIEW & PERSPECTIVE
What is the point of view of the source?
3. LOOKING AT THE CONTEXT
How did historical circumstances shape the source?
4. ASSESSING THE SIGNIFICANCE OF A SOURCE
What can be learned from this piece of evidence?

STEP 5: WORKING WITH MULTIPLE SOURCES

5. CORROBORATION
How do different pieces of evidence compare?

Part C: Making an Interpretation

1. Construct an Explanation about History
2. Seek Peer Review

THE PROCESS OF HISTORICAL INVESTIGATION

Part A: Research

1. Create an Investigative Question
2. Seek Information from Primary and Secondary Sources

Part B: Analyze Evidence

Individual Sources

1. LITERAL SOURCE QUESTIONING
  - What type of document is this? (poetry, diary, government document)
  - What is the setting? (time and place)
  - Who wrote the document? Did the recorder have firsthand knowledge of the event? Or, did the recorder report what others saw and heard?
  - Was the information recorded during the event, immediately after the event, or after some lapse of time?
  - What is the document generally about?
2. LOOKING FOR POINT OF VIEW & PERSPECTIVE
  - What religion, sex, and social class is the author?
  - What is the author's social position?
  - What "loaded" words or strong descriptive words are used? (clues to perspective)
  - What is the intent of the author?
  - How might the author be biased?
  - What is omitted?
  - Overall: What perspective or point of view on the topic is presented?
3. LOOKING AT THE CONTEXT
  - Who is the intended audience?
  - What else is going on at this time that might have affected this source's content?
  - What ideas were present in the predominant culture of the time?
  - How might the context (previous questions in this step) have affected the content of the source?
4. ASSESSING THE SIGNIFICANCE OF A SOURCE
  - Can we determine the literal aspects of the source?
  - What can we learn from the point of view of the source?
  - What questions does the source answer about my topic or the leading question?
  - What questions are left unanswered?
5. CORROBORATION
  - Are there other sources to support this source?
  - Are there sources that disagree with this source? Why?
  - What's the same? What's different?
  - What are the reasons for the similarities and differences?
  - Do sources acknowledge counter evidence?
  - Was anything omitted?

Multiple Sources

Part C: Making an Interpretation

1. Construct an Explanation about History
  - Which sources will I choose to help me with my topic or leading question? Why?
  - How many pieces of evidence do I need?
  - How will I create an answer to my question that incorporates and accounts for conflicting evidence?
2. Seek Peer Review
  - Is my explanation convincing?
  - Does my explanation have support from several pieces of evidence?
  - Does my explanation reflect the multiple perspectives of the event or era?
  - Is my explanation clearly written or demonstrated in my final product?
