

The Content, Literacy, Inquiry, and Citizenship (CLIC) Project

The CLIC Project Capital Region is excited to bring Dr. Rose Soza War Soldier to our Community of Practice in honor of Native American Heritage Month.

Join us as she provides insight into ways to bring California Indian cultures, histories, and voices into the K-12 history-social science classroom.

“The child should be encouraged to STRETCH”
Centering California Indian cultures, histories, and voices

November 18th
3:30-5:00 pm
Virtual Scholar Talk

Register at NO COST:
<https://bit.ly/2TWH2gd>

Dr. Rose Soza War Soldier, Mountain Maidu/Cahuilla/Luiseño, is an enrolled member of Soboba Band of Luiseño Indians located in southern California. Currently, she teaches at Northern Arizona University and spring 2021 will begin as an assistant professor in Ethnic Studies at Sacramento State. Her research and teaching focuses on twentieth century American Indian activism, social and cultural history, politics, education, and justice-centered movements. For more information see: <https://kamtem-indigenouknowledge.com/>

In partnership with

UCDHP
The History
Project
AT UC DAVIS

SCO*E
Sacramento County Office of Education