

The Content, Literacy, Inquiry, and Citizenship (CLIC) Project

The CLIC Project Capital Region is excited to welcome Kate Bowen, a teacher leader with The History Project at UC Davis and Dr. Katherine Cortes, Associate Director of The History Project at UC Davis as they share innovative ways to spark historical inquiry through the use of picture books.

Using Picture Books to Spark Historical Inquiry

April 14th
3:30-5:00 pm
Virtual Curriculum
Training

Register at NO COST:
<https://bit.ly/2PYhxfG>

Session Description

The CA HSS Framework highlights the importance of presenting multiple perspectives in the classroom. Picture books offer a unique opportunity to achieve this in the PK-5 setting. This interactive session will explore the use of picture books paired with primary sources for engaging inquiry. While examples will be specific to the PK-5 classroom, the strategies presented are useful for any age student.

In partnership with The History Project
AT UC DAVIS

SCOPE
Sacramento County Office of Education